Here is the information about the Folklore Show:

The performance starts at 8 pm. and that will be at a very comfortable air-conditioned concert hall

The Cossacks of St. Petersburg were formed from Cossack regiments from various regions of the Russian Empire, firstly from the Zaporozhie region, then from the Don and Kuban regions. They were called to the Empirical Cavalier Guard due to their great military experience on the Russian borders. The Cossacks military activity influenced their way of life, folk songs and dances. The location of Cossack regiments played a great role in the mixing of both cultures, Russian and Cossack. The free Cossack spirit and independent state of mind was very influential. The richest folk heritage is shown in our program. Not only their songs and dances out also the splendid costumes real the originality and peculiarity of Cossack art.

The musical ensemble, which consists of a choir, ballet and orchestra, was formed in 1995 on the basis of small group of enthusiasts. The group was formed in the hotel "Pulkovskaya" under the leadership of Alexander Mukienko, who is manager of the concert company "Aries" and at the same time is the leading soloist of the ensemble. The extremely popular and successful Cossack Ensemble of Song and dance of the North-West Region of Russia has been delighting audiences both at home in Russia and abroad in Europe, America and Asia for the past five years. While continuing the creative traditions of old, the artists bring with their professionalism a new color to the Cossack cultural heritage.

The audience is entranced by a rapturous performance of song and dance, which paints a picture of musical and theatrical artistry from both the past and the present. The colorful costumes and scenery, created in the workshops of the Mariinsky Theatre, formerly the Kirov Theatre, further highlight the history and heroic past of the Cossacks. The excellent voices and skilled performances of the soloists have impressed many connoisseurs of true art in numerous countries. The ensemble frequently gives charity concerts. The Cossack Ensemble of Song and Dance of the North-West Region of Russia has received many accolades and been among the prize-winners at international competitions.

Restaurant Demidov
Real Russian Dinner and Gypsy Show

This classical Russian restaurant revives the atmosphere of old Russia. Demidov's takes its name from the famous Russian family of entrepreneurs and industrialists whose wealth, business savvy and philanthropy are legendary. The restaurant lives up to its great name. Here you'll find an atmosphere of peace, stability and well being. Moreover, you'll find a menu of tasty and hearty Russian fare prepared by skilled chefs according to ancient recipes. Savory house specialties include venison fillets and steak, rabbit, pancakes (blini) with caviar, and quail. Guests may also slake their thirst by choosing some drink from an extensive list of French and Georgian wines. The aristocratic atmosphere at Demidov's is a throwback to the gay and glorious days of the 19th century in Russia. Guests at Demidov's are treated to live Russian and Gypsy romantic music in the evenings accompanied by guitars and grand piano. The restaurant is also gifted with picturesque and unique St. Petersburg views of the historic Fontanka River, including mystical Mikhailovsky Castle, which was a home to the Russian Hamlet Tsar Pavel I, enchanting Letny Sad (Summer Gardens), looming Church of the Resurrection and magnificent Marsovo Polye (Mars Field).
